

Helping THN Capital offer Invoice Factoring/ Invoice Loans with Salesforce

Key Objectives:

- Automating existing invoice factoring & underwriting process that was implemented using a manually-intensive process.
- System to thoroughly assess the information about both the business owner and the customers, including (but not limited to) bank statements, ID verifications, IT returns, any bankruptcy filings, repayment plans for outstanding debts, etc was needed.
- Market competition and the need for a quick turnaround on loan applications required Salesforce implementation to be scalable, competitive, and profitable.

Australian firm, THN Capital Solutions (THNCS) specializes in business finance. The team is dedicated to help its business customers grow their business and enhance their cash flow position.

Success Story – Invoice Loans

Solutions Highlights:

- Better client onboarding process using verification from APLYiD against public DB & biometric capabilities (using photo & fingerprints)
- Designed a self-service online portal for businesses to upload their invoices with the accounts receivable details to help assess their creditworthiness, using integration with bankstatement.com.
- Credit Decisioning made easier using an action-based guided intuitive component.
- Helped THN comply with documentation trail depending on the loan type such as accounts receivable aging report, invoices to factor, and business formation documents.
- Helped quick lead prioritization on the Salesforce UI, using color-coded Credit Scores that adapted in real time to underlying financial data.

Salesforce Integrations:

Success Story – Invoice Loans

Value Delivered:

- System allows the flexibility to connect with bankstatement.com platform to assess invoice information for running credit decisioning, thus, removing error prone manual uploads.
- Automatic creation and updating of customer records in Salesforce, and elimination of risk of deals getting lost in the shuffle of email messages and siloed spreadsheets.
- Reduced time spent on training of new loan assessors and arduous paperwork used for identity verification.
- More targeted, risk-averse decision making by the underwriting team.

Client Testimonial

“Automating invoice assessment and streamlining credit decisioning has immensely improved our team’s efficiency. The complexity to arrive at the prioritized leads suing Credit Scores was cracked by LendingLogik folks very well and has actually led us to realize better efficiencies. impressed with their depth of knowledge.”
